

Media Contact:
Yuba Sutter Arts
David Read
530-742-2787
david@yubasutterarts.org

For Immediate Release

Come to an Art Party at the Art Box Marketplace Reception Celebrates Local Artists at the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts

Yuba City, Calif., September 11, 2026 – If you haven't heard, the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts is much more than a theater. It is also home to the Art Box Marketplace; an ever-changing gallery and shopping destination filled with original creations by talented local artists. The community is invited to celebrate the latest collection during a lively Art Box Reception on Friday, September 18, from 4:30–6:30 p.m. at the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts, 754 Plumas Street in downtown Yuba City. Admission is free, and complimentary drinks and appetizers will be served.

Come meet the artists, hear the stories behind their work, browse the newest additions and perhaps take home something wonderful. Guests will discover paintings, photography, drawings, ceramics, stained glass, textile art, jewelry, cards, journals, stickers and other imaginative treasures, all offered at affordable prices.

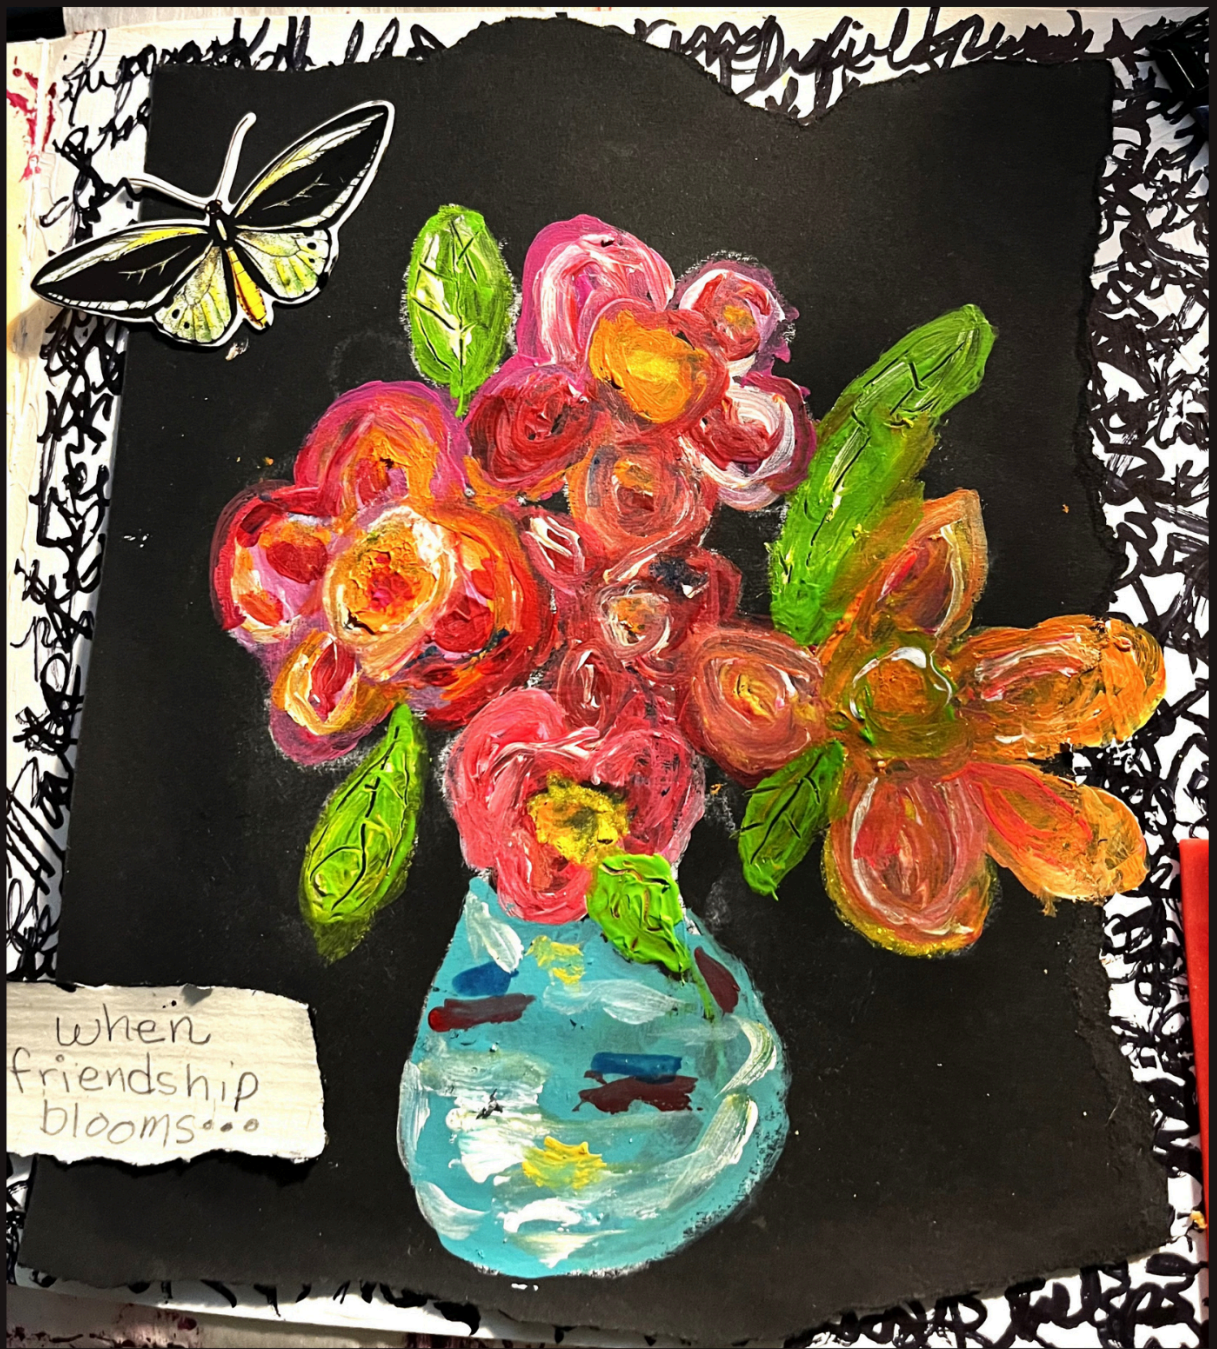

The Art Box Marketplace also showcases work by Beverly Cameron-Fildes, acrylic, watercolor and photography; Trey Anderson, colored pencil and photography; Kathy Locke, jewelry; Kathy Childers, decoupage, quilling and distinctive paper crafts; and Katie Strauss, ceramics and stained-glass art and Cameron Kersting, photographer. New to the Art Box family of artists this quarter is Mayra Ramos Chavez whose paintings and decorative art glass pieces are extraordinary.

The reception promises all the ingredients of a good art party: interesting people, creative surprises, refreshments and plenty of opportunities to support local talent. Participating artists will talk about how they got started, what inspires them and why they continue creating.

A marketplace featuring affordable work by local artists is especially valuable in a rural community like Yuba-Sutter. It gives artists visibility, income and encouragement while providing residents with convenient access to original art. It also draws visitors to downtown Yuba City, supporting nearby shops and restaurants and adding to the vitality of the Plumas Street corridor.

The Art Box Marketplace is also open each week from Wednesday through Saturday, 11 am – 4 pm and during special events at the theater. Purchasing original art supports both the participating artists and the programs of Yuba Sutter Arts & Culture. For additional information about the exhibition or reception, go to yubasutterarts.org.

About YSAC: Yuba Sutter Arts & Culture is a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide arts programming, education, advocacy, assistance, and service to artists, organizations, and residents of Yuba and Sutter Counties. The local affiliate for Yuba and Sutter of the California Arts Council, its programs include Arts in Education, Veterans Initiatives in the Arts, Stage 754 Theater Company, Center Stage Productions, the Yuba Sutter Big Band, Poetry Out Loud, the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards, and many more. # End #

Collage by Kathy Childers

Portrait by Mayra Ramos Chavez

Stained Glass by Kate Strauss

Art by Kathy Childers and Kathy Locke

Art by Mayra Ramos Chavez

